

Brief Interview with Christa Buechler (Editor)

Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?
About 10 years
2. What is the research topic you are working on now?
Role of adipokines in non-alcoholic fatty liver disease
3. What are attributes for a quality article?
Findings are new and relevant in the respective field.
Clearly written manuscript and logical presentation of the data.
4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?
Funding from the German Research Foundation
5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?
2011
6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?
Reviews / articles on very recently described drugs / pathways / molecules
7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?
Own research group
8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?
Updates on recent findings / new topics.
9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?
To review submitted paper and ensure high quality of the published work.
10. Do you have any patents?
No

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

No

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Yes

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

I have only good experiences.

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

Would be very helpful to get in contact with other members of the Editorial Board.

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes

16. How do you differentiate Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome with other journals in the field?

Open Access, Review and publishing time