Brief Interview with Mohamed Haidara (Editor)
Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?

   20 years+

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

   Diabetes, oxidative stress and cardiovascular complications.

3. What are attributes for a quality article?

   Publish in high IF journals

4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

   Yes

5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

   Since 2011

6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?

   When publish hot topics and articles have international collaborations.

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

   Egyptian state Award and many certificates of appreciations.

8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?

   When there high citation.

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

   I am an editorial board for 7 internationals journals and this keep my knowledge updated through reviewing manuscripts for them in addition to about 40 journals where I am a revower.

10. Do you have any patents?

    No

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

Yes: Editorial, 20013, 20014

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Yes

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

It is good.

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

This will be good but it should be financially supported by OMICS.

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes

16. How do you differentiate Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome with other journals in the field?

It is really good. It need to have an IF, indexed in pubmed, and ISI.

This will recruit researchers who need to publish and mean while use it for promotion in their career.

This is now mandatory in our KKU.

Please let me when do you think the journal will be registered in ISI, pubmed and expected IF to appear. This will let me with ease enhance my colleague here to publish in your journal.