

Brief Interview with Monica Colitti (Editor)

Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome

1. How many years have you been associated with the current research?

From 2 years.

2. What is the research topic you are working on now?

Natural compounds affecting adipogenesis.

3. What are attributes for a quality article?

No comments.

4. Do you have any research funding (NIH or other national funding) now?

Yes, I have one research funding.

5. When did you become an editor of OMICS Journal?

Since 2012.

6. Where can the journal find the maximum scope in terms of niche?

In term of aims and scope.

7. What is your greatest career accomplishment?

Associate professor.

8. How does the published scientific content assist the potential researchers?

Encouraging to deep insight the research problematic also by reading a lot of literature

9. What is the purpose of serving as an editor?

To support research and journal diffusion.

10. Do you have any patents?

No, I have not.

11. Have you contributed any editorials or papers (any types) to OMICS Journals in the past two years?

One Editorial.

12. Do you plan to contribute any editorials or papers to OMICS Journals in the next year?

Maybe yes, the problem is that many OMICS Journals are not in Scopus or ISI web database.

13. How would you define your experience with OMICS Group?

Good.

14. Your opinion on conducting Editorial Board meetings at related Conferences?

Interesting.

15. Would you recommend OMICS to your friends or colleagues?

Yes, of course.

16. How do you differentiate Endocrinology & Metabolic Syndrome with other journals in the field?

Very specific.